

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1886.

[Entered as Second Class Matter.]

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Severe frosts in this vicinity have done considerable damage.

The condition of Josiah Moore is in some respects somewhat improved over a few weeks since, while in others it remains about the same.

Before Justice Brown, on Monday, Samuel Walker of Harrison, was tried for alleged assault on Horace F. Proctor and fined $5 and costs. Appealed.

Albert Murphy of Detroit, Mich., is stopping at Mr. Stanwood's.

LOVELL.

On Sunday afternoon, the (Congregational) Church at the centre, nine persons were baptized by Rev. Mr. Sargent, and twelve were received into the church.

John M. Farrington has bought the "red house" at the Centre of E. T. Sargent, and is moving there with his family.

F. Kimball & Co. have been drawing grain and four from Bridgton, which they keep for sale.

The Christian church met on Tuesday last with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Eastman.

J. L. McCreary is having quite extensive repairs made on his house. W. O. Brown, B. Russell and J. F. Stearns were there.

M. K. Bonis has had quite a number of boards lately.

BRANTFORD.

The match game of base ball played at West Paris on Saturday, between the West Paris Club and the "Spookmokers" of this village, resulted in the defeat of the latter.

It is reported that Alonzo Fort contemplates making a trip with his family to California to spend the winter.

Most of the farmers are clearing their potatoes, and corn is about ready to cut. Potatoes are rotting quite badly in some sections.

Business is lively at the Grand Trunk station near the village, and also at the pool mill.

C. E. Houghton is treating his hand- some store to a coat of paint.

MILTON PLANTATION.

Mrs. Maria Flannery of Alton, N. H., with her two young daughters, Clara E. and Ida Flannery, are visiting here, by a short stay at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Fenley.

Dr. James P. Elliott, M. D., is remodeling and making improvements on his summer residence; he is also making a very neat park around the building, enclosing the grounds by a nice fence, removing several large boulders and all the small stones on the ground, making an attractive residence on Zircon Hill.

HAVERHILL.

Rev. L. M. Powers from Bates Theological School, son of C. H. Powers of Bethel, gave a very interesting sermon in Union Hall last week.

A Universalist society was formed here the 24th, with Rev. J. H. Gilchrist, called the first Universalist church of Haverhill.

Samuel Bagwell is making extensive repairs on his house.

Smith Bros' brood mare dropped a horse colt of young Nelson—the very picture of the mare.

Ant Lindy Jewett from Portland, has been visiting friends here, also C. B. Cummings and wife from Norway.

FRANKLIN PLANTATION.

Charles Bissell's large dwelling house, wood-houses, carriage-house and barn with contents of household goods, furniture, carriages and sleighs, with hay and farming tools, were sold on Wednesday night, the 13th, at 11.30 p. m. in front of the store. The fire originated in the barn—cause unknown.

We wish to correct an error which appeared in your paper of last week, in regard to the burning of our steam mill. While we do not know how the mill caught fire, it is certain that it did not originate in the dry room as stated by your correspondent.

The room spoken of was a steam dry room in the north side of the mill on the 3d floor, and the fire when discovered was in the roof of the dry room, and in the sawing room, and 2d floor, on the south side, which shows it could not have originated in the dry room.

SOUTH CASCO.

Isabelle F. Mitchell has returned from Seaside Lake.

Last Tuesday eve (14th) as the boys were celebrating the election here the cannon burst, one-half being thrown about 22 feet, causing much harm among the many spectators. It should teach the boys to be careful while using gun powder.

Mr. Dingley is about to resume work in the coal shop.

WEBER'S MILLS.

Ernest Cobb began his school at North Windham Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Rev. J. Albert Libby, of West Poland, preached at our school house last Sunday, p. m.

Work has been resuming at the corn shop the past three weeks. Corn in this vicinity has yielded well of excellent quality. They finish cleaning at the shop the present week.

Al Dyer was sick last week, threatened with typhoid fever, but is able to be out. The doctor reports not only an unusual amount of sickness this month, but some of the most difficult cases he ever was called to.

CASCO.

The Corn Shop of Burdham & Morrill has been opening up for business, and is putting about 15,000 ears of corn in the bins every day. The quality of the corn is very good, and the price is about 10 cents per bushel.

The friends of County Commissioner Folger met his home on the eve of the 13th, and gave him a grand reception. Spiller's band discoursed music, and speeches were made by Messrs. Folger, of Casco, Tolman, of Harrison, father of the Commissioner, and others, and a grand collation was served, and all pronounced it a good time.

Deputy Sheriff J. B. Mayberry and his brother, Fred W. Mayberry, are in Portland attending court in the capacity of sheriff and juror.

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1886.

[Entered as Second Class Matter.]

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Severe frosts in this vicinity have done considerable damage.

The condition of Josiah Moore is in some respects somewhat improved over a few weeks since, while in others it remains about the same.

Before Justice Brown, on Monday, Samuel Walker of Harrison, was tried for alleged assault on Horace F. Proctor and fined $5 and costs. Appealed.

Albert Murphy of Detroit, Mich., is stopping at Mr. Stanwood's.

LOVELL.

On Sunday afternoon, the (Congregational) Church at the centre, nine persons were baptized by Rev. Mr. Sargent, and twelve were received into the church.

John M. Farrington has bought the "red house" at the Centre of E. T. Sargent, and is moving there with his family.

F. Kimball & Co. have been drawing grain and four from Bridgton, which they keep for sale.

The Christian church met on Tuesday last with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Eastman.

J. L. McCreary is having quite extensive repairs made on his house. W. O. Brown, B. Russell and J. F. Stearns were there.

M. K. Bonis has had quite a number of boards lately.

BRANTFORD.

The match game of base ball played at West Paris on Saturday, between the West Paris Club and the "Spookmokers" of this village, resulted in the defeat of the latter.

It is reported that Alonzo Fort contemplates making a trip with his family to California to spend the winter.

Most of the farmers are clearing their potatoes, and corn is about ready to cut. Potatoes are rotting quite badly in some sections.

Business is lively at the Grand Trunk station near the village, and also at the pool mill.

C. E. Houghton is treating his hand- some store to a coat of paint.

MILTON PLANTATION.

Mrs. Maria Flannery of Alton, N. H., with her two young daughters, Clara E. and Ida Flannery, are visiting here, by a short stay at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Fenley.

Dr. James P. Elliott, M. D., is remodeling and making improvements on his summer residence; he is also making a very neat park around the building, enclosing the grounds by a nice fence, removing several large boulders and all the small stones on the ground, making an attractive residence on Zircon Hill.

HAVERHILL.

Rev. L. M. Powers from Bates Theological School, son of C. H. Powers of Bethel, gave a very interesting sermon in Union Hall last week.

A Universalist society was formed here the 24th, with Rev. J. H. Gilchrist, called the first Universalist church of Haverhill.

Samuel Bagwell is making extensive repairs on his house.

Smith Bros' brood mare dropped a horse colt of young Nelson—the very picture of the mare.

Ant Lindy Jewett from Portland, has been visiting friends here, also C. B. Cummings and wife from Norway.

FRANKLIN PLANTATION.

Charles Bissell's large dwelling house, wood-houses, carriage-house and barn with contents of household goods, furniture, carriages and sleighs, with hay and farming tools, were sold on Wednesday night, the 13th, at 11.30 p. m. in front of the store. The fire originated in the barn—cause unknown.

We wish to correct an error which appeared in your paper of last week, in regard to the burning of our steam mill. While we do not know how the mill caught fire, it is certain that it did not originate in the dry room as stated by your correspondent.

The room spoken of was a steam dry room in the north side of the mill on the 3d floor, and the fire when discovered was in the roof of the dry room, and in the sawing room, and 2d floor, on the south side, which shows it could not have originated in the dry room.

SOUTH CASCO.

Isabelle F. Mitchell has returned from Seaside Lake.

Last Tuesday eve (14th) as the boys were celebrating the election here the cannon burst, one-half being thrown about 22 feet, causing much harm among the many spectators. It should teach the boys to be careful while using gun powder.

Mr. Dingley is about to resume work in the coal shop.

WEBER'S MILLS.

Ernest Cobb began his school at North Windham Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Rev. J. Albert Libby, of West Poland, preached at our school house last Sunday, p. m.

Work has been resuming at the corn shop the past three weeks. Corn in this vicinity has yielded well of excellent quality. They finish cleaning at the shop the present week.

Al Dyer was sick last week, threatened with typhoid fever, but is able to be out. The doctor reports not only an unusual amount of sickness this month, but some of the most difficult cases he ever was called to.

CASCO.

The Corn Shop of Burdham & Morrill has been opening up for business, and is putting about 15,000 ears of corn in the bins every day. The quality of the corn is very good, and the price is about 10 cents per bushel.

The friends of County Commissioner Folger met his home on the eve of the 13th, and gave him a grand reception. Spiller's band discoursed music, and speeches were made by Messrs. Folger, of Casco, Tolman, of Harrison, father of the Commissioner, and others, and a grand collation was served, and all pronounced it a good time.

Deputy Sheriff J. B. Mayberry and his brother, Fred W. Mayberry, are in Portland attending court in the capacity of sheriff and juror.

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1886.

[Entered as Second Class Matter.]

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Severe frosts in this vicinity have done considerable damage.

The condition of Josiah Moore is in some respects somewhat improved over a few weeks since, while in others it remains about the same.

Before Justice Brown, on Monday, Samuel Walker of Harrison, was tried for alleged assault on Horace F. Proctor and fined $5 and costs. Appealed.

Albert Murphy of Detroit, Mich., is stopping at Mr. Stanwood's.

LOVELL.

On Sunday afternoon, the (Congregational) Church at the centre, nine persons were baptized by Rev. Mr. Sargent, and twelve were received into the church.

John M. Farrington has bought the "red house" at the Centre of E. T. Sargent, and is moving there with his family.

F. Kimball & Co. have been drawing grain and four from Bridgton, which they keep for sale.

The Christian church met on Tuesday last with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Eastman.

J. L. McCreary is having quite extensive repairs made on his house. W. O. Brown, B. Russell and J. F. Stearns were there.

M. K. Bonis has had quite a number of boards lately.

BRANTFORD.

The match game of base ball played at West Paris on Saturday, between the West Paris Club and the "Spookmokers" of this village, resulted in the defeat of the latter.

It is reported that Alonzo Fort contemplates making a trip with his family to California to spend the winter.

Most of the farmers are clearing their potatoes, and corn is about ready to cut. Potatoes are rotting quite badly in some sections.

Business is lively at the Grand Trunk station near the village, and also at the pool mill.

C. E. Houghton is treating his hand- some store to a coat of paint.

MILTON PLANTATION.

Mrs. Maria Flannery of Alton, N. H., with her two young daughters, Clara E. and Ida Flannery, are visiting here, by a short stay at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Fenley.

Dr. James P. Elliott, M. D., is remodeling and making improvements on his summer residence; he is also making a very neat park around the building, enclosing the grounds by a nice fence, removing several large boulders and all the small stones on the ground, making an attractive residence on Zircon Hill.

HAVERHILL.

Rev. L. M. Powers from Bates Theological School, son of C. H. Powers of Bethel, gave a very interesting sermon in Union Hall last week.

A Universalist society was formed here the 24th, with Rev. J. H. Gilchrist, called the first Universalist church of Haverhill.

Samuel Bagwell is making extensive repairs on his house.

Smith Bros' brood mare dropped a horse colt of young Nelson—the very picture of the mare.

Ant Lindy Jewett from Portland, has been visiting friends here, also C. B. Cummings and wife from Norway.

FRANKLIN PLANTATION.

Charles Bissell's large dwelling house, wood-houses, carriage-house and barn with contents of household goods, furniture, carriages and sleighs, with hay and farming tools, were sold on Wednesday night, the 13th, at 11.30 p. m. in front of the store. The fire originated in the barn—cause unknown.

We wish to correct an error which appeared in your paper of last week, in regard to the burning of our steam mill. While we do not know how the mill caught fire, it is certain that it did not originate in the dry room as stated by your correspondent.

The room spoken of was a steam dry room in the north side of the mill on the 3d floor, and the fire when discovered was in the roof of the dry room, and in the sawing room, and 2d floor, on the south side, which shows it could not have originated in the dry room.

SOUTH CASCO.

Isabelle F. Mitchell has returned from Seaside Lake.

Last Tuesday eve (14th) as the boys were celebrating the election here the cannon burst, one-half being thrown about 22 feet, causing much harm among the many spectators. It should teach the boys to be careful while using gun powder.

Mr. Dingley is about to resume work in the coal shop.

WEBER'S MILLS.

Ernest Cobb began his school at North Windham Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Rev. J. Albert Libby, of West Poland, preached at our school house last Sunday, p. m.

Work has been resuming at the corn shop the past three weeks. Corn in this vicinity has yielded well of excellent quality. They finish cleaning at the shop the present week.

Al Dyer was sick last week, threatened with typhoid fever, but is able to be out. The doctor reports not only an unusual amount of sickness this month, but some of the most difficult cases he ever was called to.

CASCO.

The Corn Shop of Burdham & Morrill has been opening up for business, and is putting about 15,000 ears of corn in the bins every day. The quality of the corn is very good, and the price is about 10 cents per bushel.

The friends of County Commissioner Folger met his home on the eve of the 13th, and gave him a grand reception. Spiller's band discoursed music, and speeches were made by Messrs. Folger, of Casco, Tolman, of Harrison, father of the Commissioner, and others, and a grand collation was served, and all pronounced it a good time.

Deputy Sheriff J. B. Mayberry and his brother, Fred W. Mayberry, are in Portland attending court in the capacity of sheriff and juror.

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1886.

[Entered as Second Class Matter.]

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Severe frosts in this vicinity have done considerable damage.

The condition of Josiah Moore is in some respects somewhat improved over a few weeks since, while in others it remains about the same.

Before Justice Brown, on Monday, Samuel Walker of Harrison, was tried for alleged assault on Horace F. Proctor and fined $5 and costs. Appealed.

Albert Murphy of Detroit, Mich., is stopping at Mr. Stanwood's.

LOVELL.

On Sunday afternoon, the (Congregational) Church at the centre, nine persons were baptized by Rev. Mr. Sargent, and twelve were received into the church.

John M. Farrington has bought the "red house" at the Centre of E. T. Sargent, and is moving there with his family.

F. Kimball & Co. have been drawing grain and four from Bridgton, which they keep for sale.

The Christian church met on Tuesday last with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Eastman.

J. L. McCreary is having quite extensive repairs made on his house. W. O. Brown, B. Russell and J. F. Stearns were there.

M. K. Bonis has had quite a number of boards lately.

BRANTFORD.

The match game of base ball played at West Paris on Saturday, between the West Paris Club and the "Spookmokers" of this village, resulted in the defeat of the latter.

It is reported that Alonzo Fort contemplates making a trip with his family to California to spend the winter.

Most of the farmers are clearing their potatoes, and corn is about ready to cut. Potatoes are rotting quite badly in some sections.

Business is lively at the Grand Trunk station near the village, and also at the pool mill.

C. E. Houghton is treating his hand- some store to a coat of paint.

MILTON PLANTATION.

Mrs. Maria Flannery of Alton, N. H., with her two young daughters, Clara E. and Ida Flannery, are visiting here, by a short stay at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Fenley.

Dr. James P. Elliott, M. D., is remodeling and making improvements on his summer residence; he is also making a very neat park around the building, enclosing the grounds by a nice fence, removing several large boulders and all the small stones on the ground, making an attractive residence on Zircon Hill.

HAVERHILL.

Rev. L. M. Powers from Bates Theological School, son of C. H. Powers of Bethel, gave a very interesting sermon in Union Hall last week.

A Universalist society was formed here the 24th, with Rev. J. H. Gilchrist, called the first Universalist church of Haverhill.

Samuel Bagwell is making extensive repairs on his house.

Smith Bros' brood mare dropped a horse colt of young Nelson—the very picture of the mare.

Ant Lindy Jewett from Portland, has been visiting friends here, also C. B. Cummings and wife from Norway.

FRANKLIN PLANTATION.

Charles Bissell's large dwelling house, wood-houses, carriage-house and barn with contents of household goods, furniture, carriages and sleighs, with hay and farming tools, were sold on Wednesday night, the 13th, at 11.30 p. m. in front of the store. The fire originated in the barn—cause unknown.

We wish to correct an error which appeared in your paper of last week, in regard to the burning of our steam mill. While we do not know how the mill caught fire, it is certain that it did not originate in the dry room as stated by your correspondent.

The room spoken of was a steam dry room in the north side of the mill on the 3d floor, and the fire when discovered was in the roof of the dry room, and in the sawing room, and 2d floor, on the south side, which shows it could not have originated in the dry room.

SOUTH CASCO.

Isabelle F. Mitchell has returned from Seaside Lake.

Last Tuesday eve (14th) as the boys were celebrating the election here the cannon burst, one-half being thrown about 22 feet, causing much harm among the many spectators. It should teach the boys to be careful while using gun powder.

Mr. Dingley is about to resume work in the coal shop.

WEBER'S MILLS.

Ernest Cobb began his school at North Windham Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Rev. J. Albert Libby, of West Poland, preached at our school house last Sunday, p. m.

Work has been resuming at the corn shop the past three weeks. Corn in this vicinity has yielded well of excellent quality. They finish cleaning at the shop the present week.

Al Dyer was sick last week, threatened with typhoid fever, but is able to be out. The doctor reports not only an unusual amount of sickness this month, but some of the most difficult cases he ever was called to.

CASCO.

The Corn Shop of Burdham & Morrill has been opening up for business, and is putting about 15,000 ears of corn in the bins every day. The quality of the corn is very good, and the price is about 10 cents per bushel.

The friends of County Commissioner Folger met his home on the eve of the 13th, and gave him a grand reception. Spiller's band discoursed music, and speeches were made by Messrs. Folger, of Casco, Tolman, of Harrison, father of the Commissioner, and others, and a grand collation was served, and all pronounced it a good time.

Deputy Sheriff J. B. Mayberry and his brother, Fred W. Mayberry, are in Portland attending court in the capacity of sheriff and juror.

NEW STOCK, NEW GOODS!

HAS JUST OPENED A LARGE LOT OF

Boots, shoes & slippers, for fall and winter trade.

Ladies' boots, shoes & slippers, for fall and winter trade.

Remember that you can get the Wise & Cooper, French, American and Dongola Kid Button Boots in all sizes and widths at Millett's. These Goods are noted for their style, fit and wearing qualities.

Gentlemen!

Before purchasing elsewhere, you should look at our $3.00 Seamless Calf Congress; also a very fine line of Calf and Veal Kid Congress Button and Lace Boots.

KIP AND THICK BOOTS in abundance. Also a full line of Men's Calf Boots. Misses' and Children's Heel and Spring Heel Kid Gait and Grain Button Boots, in large quantities.

One price to all. Remember the place, 112 MAIN ST., NORWAY, ME.

P. S.—New Goring put in Congress Boots.

NATHAN HATCH, (successor to) W. C. PIERCE, Picture Frame Manufacturer, Upholster and Furniture Repairer.

Takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Norway and vicinity, that he has opened a Picture store on No. 239 Main St., and is prepared to do all kinds of picture framing, and is prepared to do all kinds of picture framing, and is prepared to do all kinds of picture framing.

A large stock of Mouldings, Picture Frames, and Artists' Materials. Pictures Copied—These having Pictures of friends they wish to have copied and enlarged, will save money by taking them to him, as he has the best of the best Copying Houses in the State, and makes his own Frames.

A large stock of Mouldings, Picture Frames, and Artists' Materials. Pictures Copied—These having Pictures of friends they wish to have copied and enlarged, will save money by taking them to him, as he has the best of the best Copying Houses in the State, and makes his own Frames.

A large stock of Mouldings, Picture Frames, and Artists' Materials. Pictures Copied—These having Pictures of friends they wish to have copied and enlarged, will save money by taking them to him, as he has the best of the best Copying Houses in the State, and makes his own Frames.

A large stock of Mouldings, Picture Frames, and Artists' Materials. Pictures Copied—These having Pictures of friends they wish to have copied and enlarged, will save money by taking them to him, as he has the best of the best Copying Houses in the State, and makes his own Frames.

A large stock of Mouldings, Picture Frames, and Artists' Materials. Pictures Copied—These having Pictures of friends they wish to have copied and enlarged, will save money by taking them to him, as he has the best of the best Copying Houses in the State, and makes his own Frames.

A large stock of Mouldings, Picture Frames, and Artists' Materials. Pictures Copied—These having Pictures of friends they wish to have copied and enlarged, will save money by taking them to him, as he has the best of the

